

Data Protection and Privacy Policy

Protecting the privacy of individuals on the Internet is of critical importance for trustful Internet-based transactions. With this Data Protection and Privacy Policy statement, DLR wishes to demonstrate its firm commitment to secure and trustworthy Internet communication and the individual's right to privacy.

Consent

By giving your consent, you agree to the collection and use of your data as described here. Any changes to this Data Protection and Privacy Policy will be made directly on this page so that you are always informed of the data collected by DLR and its internal use.

Use and purpose of collected personal data

We only store personal data collected via our website or in emails with your prior consent. You alone choose whether you provide us with the requested data, such as during registration or a survey. In addition to the application form, the provided data may be used anonymously within the DLR to improve our services and for statistical purposes.

Furthermore, data will only be forwarded to third parties with your express prior consent, unless disclosure is required by the applicable legislation. Your data will be used solely for the purposes described below.

1. What information do we collect and for what purpose?

User registration

When you register, we will use the requested data, such as your name, for personalised addressing of newsletters or for online communication.

E-mail addresses

If you choose to give us your e-mail address, we will communicate with you via e-mail. We do not share your email address with third parties outside DLR. If you no longer wish to receive e-mails from us, you can unsubscribe from the service at any time.

Depending on the set-up of your e-mail program, information about you may be transmitted automatically when you send e-mail to DLR. DLR will also treat this confidentially.

Data Protection and Privacy Policy

Application documents

The documents and data submitted to DLR with your application will be treated confidentially and used solely for the application process, statistical purposes and for potential recruitment.

By submitting your application you also consent to the possibility that your application data might be shared internally for similar job opportunities within DLR, unless you have expressly objected to this.

Upon termination of the application process, and following appropriate statistical assessment at the start of the following year, or after a lengthy period of inactivity on the user's behalf, the provided data will be deleted.

2. Opt-out

You can opt out of receiving email communications from us whenever you like. You only need to email us to have your name and details removed from DLR's e-mail list or registration database. Registered users can exercise the right to opt out of the candidate cockpit at any time.

3. Information and questions

If you have any questions about this privacy statement, such as viewing or updating your personal information, please contact:
