

News Archive 2007

School students interview Thomas Reiter onboard the ISS

20 July 2006

On 13 July 2006, five high school students interviewed ESA astronaut Thomas Reiter live onboard the International Space Station (ISS) as part of the European Astrolab mission.

TV station PHOENIX broadcast the interview. Unfortunately, there is no English version of the video.

Contact details for image and video enquiries as well as information regarding DLR's terms of use can be found on the DLR portal imprint.